THE GREAT SIEGE OF MALTA

A formidable army of infidels are on the point of putting our island under siege.

We, for our part, are the chosen soldiers of the Cross, and if Heaven requires the sacrifice of our lives, there can be no better occasion than this. There we will renew our vows and obtain, by our faith, that contempt for death which alone can render us invincible.

WHAT IT REALLY MEANS TO BE A DISCIPLE?

If anyone wishes to follow me,
let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.

The greatest mistake or tragedy one can make in life is to keep on doing the (good and right) things we want to do, only to discover later that this may not have been God's will for you...

WHO'S WITH US?

Have you settled the 'discipleship issue' with the Lord? Describe the kind of discipleship conversation you been having with him lately?

A silhouette of a group of people walking along the crest of a dark hill against a vibrant sunset sky. The sky transitions from a deep orange near the horizon to a soft pink and purple at the top. The figures are small and dark, creating a sense of a long journey or pilgrimage. One person is walking alone on the left, while a group of about eight people is walking together on the right.

At this point in your journey with Him, any specific area that you sense He wants you to fully surrender and 'not hold back'?
